OPEN MEETING LAW: Association meetings are required to comply with A.R.S. 33-1804, commonly referred to as the Open Meeting Law for Planned Communities. Meetings are open to all Members wishing to attend. However, there are circumstances where the Board may elect to meet in a closed meeting or “executive session”.

EXECUTIVE SESSION: The Board will meet in a closed executive session before each scheduled board meeting. Discussion is limited to consideration of one or more of the following:

- (1) Legal advice from an attorney for the board or the association.
- (2) Pending or contemplated litigation.
- (3) Personal, health, or financial information about an individual member of the association.
- (4) An individual employee of the association or an individual employee of a contractor for the association.
- (5) Matters relating to the job performance of, compensation of, health records of or specific complaints against an individual employee of the association or an individual employee of a contractor of the association.
- (6) A member’s appeal of any violation cited or penalty imposed, except on the request of the affected member that the meeting be held in an open session.

NOTICE TO PARENTS: Any open meeting of the Association may be recorded by those attending. Recordings may be posted on the Association’s Members-only webportal. If you permit your child to participate in one of our meetings, please assume a recording will be made. If your child is seated in the audience, your child may be recorded, but you may request that your child be seated in a designated area to avoid recording. Please submit your request prior to the start of the meeting.
