Community Newsletter-October 2021

MEET YOUR NEIGHBOR:

Welcome Kara and Greg Zwick! They are new to Ravenswood but not to the area. They share their home with their little dog Ellie. You will find her mostly walking them through bushes, as she is on a mission to sniff out critters. They are both in cardiology. Greg works at the Mayo Hospital as a rhythm and analysis tech and Kara works at a private practice doing cardiac ultrasound. Greg also teaches CPR for the American Heart Association and is willing to hold a basic first aid and CPR class for the neighborhood.

COMMUNITY INFO & NEWS:

Dale Chihuly returns to the Sonoran Desert with a stunning new exhibition at two of Arizona's most iconic venues, Desert Botanical Garden and Frank Lloyd Wright's Taliesin West. Combining art, architecture and nature, Chihuly in the Desert is set against majestic saguaros, the striking Papago buttes, and a World Heritage site. Chihuly's masterpieces stun from day to night as color, light and form come alive for the first time ever at two locations for a joint exhibition. TICKETS GO ON SALE 10/4 AND IT OPENS IN DECEMBER.

HOUSE INFO:

October is a great month to walk around the outside of your home and make sure you don't have any trees or bushes impeding on your neighbor. The neighborly rule is --if it is over the fence on your property, you can trim it. Also, trim back any trees/bushes/vines that are touching your own home. The added moisture is not good for the exterior stucco or roof tiles.

LANDSCAPE TIP OF THE MONTH:

This is the best time for planting potatoes (not sweet potatoes) - using grow bags can start them off first. Now is also perfect for garlic, peas (through Feb.) and harvesting your peppers. Don't forget to give those peppers a weekly Foliar spray of Epsom salts, as they are actively growing. Best to plant your wildflowers and spread in rocky spots of your yard for visual interest.
