RULES AND REGULATIONS CC&R VIOLATION AND ENFORCEMENT POLICY (AMENDED April 2026)

Should a period of time of at least ninety {90} days lapse between violation letters about the same offense, the next letter will be a First Notice again. NOTE: This only applies to General Violations, not Short-Term Rental Violations.

Certified Mailing Fee

In addition to the monetary penalties there will be a fifteen {15} dollar certified mailing fee assessed per violation.

Right of Self-Help

The Association has the right (but not the obligation) to enter the Owner's property and to provide all maintenance and repairs that are necessary to remove the violation. Entry by the Association and any of its agents is not an actionable trespass. The Association may assess the Owner for the costs of all maintenance and repairs performed by the Association.

Opportunity to be Heard/Other Rights

The Association recognizes each Owner's right to explain the reasons why there is a violation of the CC&R's or the other Project Documents, particularly if the violation results in a fine. Before any fine is assessed, an Owner has the opportunity to request a hearing before the Board of Directors. The Owner must provide timely written request for a hearing. If the hearing is scheduled, and attended, the Owner is bound by the decision of a majority of the Board. Owners have other rights as set forth in the Arizona condominium statutes, including the right to file a petition with the Arizona Department of Real Estate for an administrative hearing.
